ART EXHIBITION

Small Works: Subway Series by Jonathan Van Brunt

Through his formal training at Maine College of Art Design and Ohio University School of Art Design, Mr. Van Brunt uses loose and textured brushwork in his early abstracts and in the landscapes he paints today. The terrain of Long Island's parks and marshes are a perfect subject matter for incorporating this expressive brushwork. Jonathan uses acrylic and oil paint equally, and will often incorporate a painting knife or other tools for texture and marks.

In the Display Case: Small works by Jonathan Van Brunt.

Ludwig van Beethoven - "His Music and Influence" via Zoom

Tuesday, December 6, 7:00 PM

The influence that composer Ludwig van Beethoven had on the progression of music history cannot be overstated. His defiant approach towards music and composing paved the way for artists today to express themselves as they truly desire. You will gain an understanding of this complicated genius and learn how over 150 years later he is still influencing the world today.
