Special Program: Sound Healing

Thursday, May 19, 7:00 PM

Join Donna Nestruck as she uses crystal singing bowls that produce powerful vibratory sound waves which resonate deeply within the body. Other meditative sounds are also combined during this session to allow for a restorative and relaxing experience, creating a peaceful calm within. Registration begins May 2.

CONCERT

Tennessee Walt: An Afternoon in the Country

Saturday, May 14, 2:00 PM

Join us for a hit-filled collection of classic country songs from the 1930s through the 1990s. This program is light on talk and heavy on music, all performed live with voice and piano. You will hear songs famously performed by Hank Williams, Patsy Cline, Johnny Cash, and more.

ART EXHIBITION

Carmen Stasi

Carmen Stasi is a local artist who has observed and painted Long Island farmland for many years. This exhibition gives a picture of the sunsets over land and sea in brilliant colors only found on Long Island. Some of the images are presented as abstracts. Mr. Stasi is a multi-talented artist. He paints, sculpts, and creates beauty from discarded materials (or found objects), some of which are also on display.

Display Case: Fiber Works by Louise Hanson.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Unless otherwise noted, REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED for all Children's Programs. Registration for May programs begin 5/2. Each child must register under his/her own library card.
